NEWS RELEASE

ISRAEL'S AMBASSADOR-DESIGNATE VISITS SVG

February 3rd 2010

Israel's Ambassador-Designate to St. Vincent and the Grenadines. His Excellency (H.E.) Amiram Magid will present his credentials tomorrow (Thursday) to His Excellency (H.E.) Governor General, Sir Frederick Ballantyne, at Government House.

Ambassador Amiram Magid's career in Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs began in 1979 and he has served in several postings over the years.

During the next two days, the Ambassador will pay courtesy calls on the Acting Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Commerce and Trade, Sir Louis Straker, and will meet with Ministers and officials of the Ministries of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries; Telecommunications, Science, Technology and Industry; and Education. He will also meet with representatives of the private sector, the Organization of American States (OAS) Director and representatives of the local media.

St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Israel established diplomatic relations in 1981.
