

Queen's University "Step Out" for a Fairtrade Cuppa

27 February 2012

Belfast, NORTHERN IRELAND: Queen's Fairtrade Steering Group invites you to support Fairtrade Fortnight (27 February - 11 March 2012) by attending the University's annual Fairtrade coffee morning which will take place in the Canada Room on Monday 27 February, 10.00am - 11.00am.

Fairtrade tea, coffee and chocolate-dipped shortbread will be served.

Dr Christopher Stange, Chairman of the Belfast Fairtrade Committee and Hon. Consul of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines to Northern Ireland, will be the guest speaker at the event about Belfast as a Fairtrade City and Fairtrade in Northern Ireland, as well as his own personal experience of Fairtrade and working on projects in developing countries.

The theme of this year's Fairtrade Fortnight is 'Take a Step in 2012 for Fairtrade'. And taking a step couldn't be easier – why not use the office tea kitty to buy a Fairtrade product? Staff from the Students' Union Shop will be on hand at the coffee morning with a selection of Fairtrade stock and they can arrange your office's order for tea, coffee, sugar, chocolate - even olive oil! Payment can be made in cash or by using the staff card easy-pay option.

'Take a Step' on 27 February and support Queen's commitment to Fairtrade.
