

Consular Corps of Northern Ireland Mourns Death of Lord Ballyedmond

14 March 2014

Belfast, NORTHERN IRELAND: The Consular Corps/Association for Northern Ireland (CA-NI) has expressed its sincerest condolences on the tragic death of one of its members and colleagues, Edward Haughey - Lord Ballyedmond & Hon. Consul for Chile to Northern Ireland.

Lord Ballyedmond was an outgoing supporter and valued colleague of CA-NI, sincerely committed to developing business networks and relationships with Northern Ireland on a local, regional and international scale.

Dr Christopher Stange – CA-NI’s Secretariat said: “We are deeply shocked by Lord Ballyedmond’s untimely death as his positive contributions to wider society will be sadly missed. On behalf of CA-NI, I would like to take this opportunity to express our deepest heartfelt sympathies to his family and friends.”
