

Northern Ireland Assembly and Business Trust Delegation to Irish Parliament

20 June 2012

Dublin, IRELAND: The Northern Ireland Assembly and Business Trust (NIABT) organised a small delegation of Members from the public and private sector for a 2 day educational visit to the Houses of the Oireachtus – Irish Parliament.

The NIABT was established in 2002 offering parliamentarians and the business sector in Northern Ireland an educational and information platform to develop a greater understanding of respective needs.

The Dublin programme centred around discussions and briefings with various Committees and Departments to further strengthen North-South collaboration on the island of Ireland within the context of sovereignty, sectors of the economy and existing legislation.

David McClarty MLA and Dr Christopher Stange – Secretariat of the Consular Association for Northern Ireland (CA-NI) lead the discussion with David Cooney - Secretary General and officials at Iveagh House – Headquarters of the Irish Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

L-R: Dr Christopher Stange – CA-NI Secretariat; David Cooney – Secretary General, Ireland Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade; David McClarty MLA, Leslie Cree MLA
