St. Vincent and the Grenadines' tourism product has landed another award.

The Ministry of Tourism, Sports and Culture announced today it had been notified by Kahn Travel Public Communication Relations and the Caribbean Tourism Organisation, that SVG has won Caribbean Week's "Best Consumer Newspaper Feature" category.

The award stems from the New York Times article: "Bequia: Getting Away From the Getaways" by Mr Jeremy Peters.

The editorial, which ran in print and online versions in November 2011, featured several of the islands of St. Vincent and the Grenadines with a focus on Bequia.
