

Remembrance Sunday 2016

13 November 2016

Belfast, NORTHERN IRELAND: On behalf of the Government of St. Vincent and the Grenadines (SVG), Dr Christopher Stange – Hon. Consul for SVG to Northern Ireland attended today's service at Belfast City Hall, where he laid a wreath at the Cenotaph within Belfast City Hall's grounds.

Among others whom laid wreaths were Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant of Belfast – Fionnuala Jay - O'Boyle, Secretary of State for Northern Ireland – Rt Hon James Brokenshire MP, Junior Minister – Alastair Ross MLA, Ireland's Deputy Prime Minister (Tánaiste) – Frances Fitzgerald TD, Lord Mayor of Belfast – Alderman Brian Kingston and other dignitaries alongside service organisations.

L-R: Rt Hon James Brokenshire MP; Ken Belshaw; Alderman Brian Kingston; Commander J Grey; Alastair Ross MLA; Dr Christopher Stange

The Act of Remembrance is organised by the Royal British Legion and Belfast City Hall to commemorate the sacrifices of the servicemen/women of the British & Commonwealth forces.

Dr Stange commented: "It is a privilege to participate in such a commemoration ceremony of all nations that endured the ultimate sacrifice for the freedom that we all enjoy today. We must never forget these individuals and their memory lives on."

ENDS