

Remembrance Sunday 2015

08 November 2015

Belfast, NORTHERN IRELAND: On behalf of the Government of St. Vincent and the Grenadines (SVG), Dr Christopher Stange – Hon. Consul for SVG to Northern Ireland laid a wreath at the Cenotaph within Belfast City Hall's grounds.

Among others whom laid wreaths were Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant of Belfast – Fionnuala Jay - O'Boyle, Secretary of State for Northern Ireland – Theresa Villiers MP, First Minister of Northern Ireland - Peter Robinson MLA, Ireland's Minister of Foreign Affairs – Charles Flanagan TD, Deputy Lord Mayor of Belfast – Alderman Guy Spence and other dignitaries alongside service organisations.

The Act of Remembrance is organised by the Royal British Legion and Belfast City Hall to commemorate the sacrifices of the servicemen/women of the British & Commonwealth forces.

L-R: Deputy Lord Mayor – Alderman Guy Spence; Commander J Grey; First Minister of Northern Ireland – Rt. Hon. Peter Robinson MLA; Hon. Consul for St. Vincent to Northern Ireland – Dr Christopher Stange

Dr Christopher Stange, said: “It’s important for all Vincentians to reflect on the memory of our loss, and to commemorate all those whom made the ultimate sacrifice in two world wars to defend our freedoms or whom have been killed or injured in more recent conflicts.”

ENDS