

New Cuban Ambassador Presents Credentials

30 September 2010

Kingstown, ST. VINCENT: His Excellency (H.E.) Pedro Antonio Rodriguez Vidal and his wife - Mrs Maria Concepcion Munoz Prieto arrived today with a Cuban delegation, including two engineers assigned to the construction of the Argyle International Airport.

Other members of the delegation included cultural artists who are working with the Ministry of Culture.

Tomorrow, H.E. Pedro Antonio Rodriguez Vidal will present his credentials to Her Excellency (H.E.) Dame Monica Dacon, Deputy Governor General at Government House. The Cuban Ambassador will also make courtesy calls on Prime Minister, Dr. the Hon. Ralph Gonsalves and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Commerce and Trade, Sir Louis Straker.

H.E. Pedro Antonio Rodriguez Vidal becomes the second resident Cuban Ambassador to St. Vincent and the Grenadines.
