

New Taiwanese Ambassador Arrives in SVG

06 September 2010

Kingstown, ST. VINCENT: Taiwanese Ambassador to St. Vincent and the Grenadines, His Excellency (H.E.) Weber V.B. Shih arrived to a welcome ceremony at E.T. Joshua Airport.

H.E. Weber V.B. Shih replaces Ambassador Leo Lee who recently finished his posting and will head the Taiwanese Mission.

Acting Prime Minister, Hon. Mike Browne welcomed the new Ambassador stating that the Government is looking forward to furthering the Diplomatic relations that have been established between our countries, for almost thirty continuous years.

Ambassador Shih will present his credentials in the coming days to the Governor General - H.E. Sir Frederick Ballantyne, with courtesy calls to be made next week to Prime Minister - Dr. Ralph Gonsalves and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Commerce and Trade – Sir Louis Straker.
