

SVG Election Bell Rings

14 November 2010

Calliaqua, ST. VINCENT: After much speculation on the date for the next general elections, Vincentians now have a date to cast their vote. Prime Minister, Dr. the Hon. Ralph Gonsalves "rang the bell" last night (November 14, 2010) during the Unity Labour Party's Rally held at the Calliaqua Playing Field.

Prime Minister Gonsalves also the Leader for the Unity Labour Party announced that the House of Parliament will be dissolved from tomorrow (November 15, 2010) and that ten days thereafter would be nomination day (November 26, 2010). By law elections can be called fifteen days or more after nomination day. The Prime Minister has declared Election Day to be Monday December 13, 2010.
