

Ards Borough Council & Ards Intercultural Forum EU Peace III Review

29 November 2013

Newtownards, NORTHERN IRELAND: In collaboration with Ards Borough Council and Ards Intercultural Forum (AIF) a review was provided to key stakeholders, including elected political representatives and distinguished guests, on the re-imaging and cultural diversity projects delivered across Ards Borough.

R-L: Sandra Henderson – AIF Secretary; Dr Christopher Stange – AIF Chair & Hon. Consul of St. Vincent and the Grenadines to Northern Ireland; Mayor of Ards – Cllr. Stephen McIlveen; Des McCauley – AIF Vice-Chair; Michelle McIlveen MLA and Jim Murdock - Good Relations Officer, Ards Borough Council

These projects were funded under the European Union's Peace III Programme managed by the Special EU Programmes Body and delivered by the North Down, Ards & Down Peace III Partnership to enhance cultural awareness and encourage a better understanding of cultural difference, whilst challenging racism and sectarianism across the cluster area.

Guest speakers included The Mayor of Ards – Cllr. Stephen McIlveen, Dr Christopher Stange – Chair of Ards Intercultural Forum, service delivery organisations and key presenter Jim Murdock, Good Relations Officer – Ards Borough Council.
