

Airlines Flying Into Argyle International to be Announced Mid 2013

30 October 2012

Kingstown, ST. VINCENT: Glen Beache - Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the St Vincent and the Grenadines Tourism Authority (SVGTA), indicated an announcement is expected to be made by mid 2013, for which airlines will be flying into Argyle International Airport.

SVGTA has been charged with the responsibility of engaging prospective airlines adding the prospects are looking good.

He said that among the things to be decided upon, were apron costs, frequency of service of the particular airline and accommodation for crew members. "It involves many factors to take into consideration."

According to Beache, when the announcement is made in relation to the airline, the relevant support to the airlines will also be made public. "There will have to be some support."

ENDS