

Vincentian Soroptimist Delegation at Northern Ireland Conference

25 October 2012

Belfast, NORTHERN IRELAND: Nelcia Primus (Lowman's Hill) and Miriam Roache (Lodge Village) represented St. Vincent and the Grenadines (SVG's) Soroptimist Chapter, arriving in Northern Ireland earlier this week from St. Vincent.

Nelcia Primus and Miriam Roache

The 78th Annual Soroptimist International Conference was held in Belfast, Northern Ireland from the 25th – 27th October, seeing over 1300 Soroptimists from around the globe assembled in one place for the main conference at the Waterfront Hall and social events at the Europa Hotel and Titanic Belfast.

Soroptimist International is a worldwide service organisation for women, committed to a world where women and girls together achieve their individual and collective potential, realise aspirations and have an equal voice in creating strong, peaceful communities worldwide.

Dr Christopher Stange – Hon. Consul for St. Vincent and the Grenadines to Northern Ireland welcomed the delegation adding: "It is wonderful to have SVG represented and a voice in as many arenas as possible. I would like to commend the excellent work being conducted by all members of the SVG Soroptimist Chapter. With Argyle International Airport on plan and tourism development initiatives by government, the obvious potential of the airport is being able to host similar international events at home, highlighting our great nation to the world."

ENDS